

This festival is seen as a way of preserving the memory of the deceased and keeping the family's history alive.

Qingming

Qinming history

The origins of the Qingming Festival go back more than 2500 years, although the observance has changed significantly. It became a public holiday in mainland China in 2008, where it is associated with the consumption of qingtuan, green dumplings made of glutinous rice and Chinese mugwort or barley grass.
